A Penitent's Prayer.

You kissed me at the gate last night,
And mother heard the smacking;
She says I've nothing to do, So please to take 'em back.

I cannot see what harm there is In such a thing, can you?
But mother seems so very wrath, Please take it back—now do.

It seems to me quite natural For the lips to meet that way; But mother says it's very wrong, So take it back—now do.

And, come to think of it, I'm sure That several times 'twas done; So now to make it right, I've sure To take back everything.

I would not have you think it's me;
I do not care a mile;
But mother's not to be trifled with,
Please take them back to-night.

Bilderback's Wolf.

HOW HE WAS RAISED, AND HOW HE RAISED

THE NEIGHBORS.

It wasn't many weeks ago that Mr. Bilderback, an old settler, received from a friend but in Kansas the singular present of a pet wolf, which had been captured when very young by the friend, and trained and tamed until it was declared by all good judges of wolves to be perfectly harmless, docile and civilized.

Mr. Bilderback is not a very good judge of wolves, and he had his doubts about the civilization of his pet, but his boy begged so hard for it, and Miss Bilderback thought it would look so romantic, she said, prowling about the yard, "with its deep gallop," that he decided to keep it. He kept it chained for several days, in order to get it accustomed to its new home, and it behaved in a very civilized manner indeed. It did not show any disposition to destroy anybody, but it was very obstinate.

One day, when it was chained to a post, it thought it would look so romantic, she said, prowling about the yard, "with its deep gallop," that he decided to keep it. He kept it chained for several days, in order to get it accustomed to its new home, and it behaved in a very civilized manner indeed. It did not show any disposition to destroy anybody, but it was very obstinate.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

AF-FLICTED FAMILY.—Two weeks since we announced the death of a daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Fischer, residing near Winters, and to-day we have the regretful duty of announcing the death of yet another son of those truly afflicted and bereaved parents. On the 22d of January, we paid the last tribute of respect to the remains of Ella, an interesting daughter, rising 10 years of age; and three days later a like tribute to the remains of Gustavus Arthur, an interesting youth just budding into manhood, at the age of 18, and on Wednesday last followed to the tomb Albert, another son, cut down at the age of 16. After so many years of tender and loving rearing, the heartfelt sympathy of parents and friends of suffering humanity will go forth to the parents so suddenly deprived of those who fondly hoped would be their stay and comfort while descending the shady side of life.

VALENTINE DAY.—The anniversary of St.
Valentine, occurs on Wednesday next, 14th of February, and Ed. Ferguson, at the Post office building, can furnish to the young, the old, the sweetheart, the courting, the engaged, and the married, the necessary mementoes to keep "the nails of affection," secured in their proper place, on the opehand, or sharpen their points to secure their being successfully driven into a sure place, on the other hand. As for ourselves, we have already taken up the lamentation,
"The summer is past, the rains have come, the fields are green, and we like the last rose of summer, 'are left blooming alone,'" without the faintest hope that an angel in calico will in pity relent: "I'll not leave thee, thou lone one to pine on the stem." But such is life—we don't repine, nor don't expect any in our.

I. O. G. T. INSTALLATION.—The following officers of Winters Lodge, No. 165, I.
O. G. T. were installed Friday evening, Feb. 2nd, by Lodge Deputy Ed. Ferguson.
D. P. Edwards, W. C. T.; Miss Mira Stevens, W. R. S.; Alice Wilson, W. L. S.; Alice Kierie, W. V. T.; Mrs. H. A. Ball, W. S.; Nellie Bronson, W. A. S.; Parrie Allen; W. F. S.; Mrs. E. A. Moody, W. T.; T.
McLeod, W. M.; Mary Stewart, W. D. M.; Ed. Maxwell, W. I. G.; Walter Thompson, W. O. G.; Rev. S. B. Dutton, W. C.; Wm.
Sims, P. W. C. T.

LAGER BEER.—Mr. H. Besser, of the Dixon Brewery, was in town this week. Mr.
B. has supplied our citizens and saloons with his rich, creamy lager during the whole season and purpose to continue so doing in the future, and his beer has acquired so great a reputation in Winters, that he thinks none will find it to their advantage to crowd him out of this market.

THE OUTLOOK.—Under the influence of the late rains and the thermometer ranging from 52 to 70, trees are budding out, and almost trees have been in full bloom for nearly two weeks. The hills and valleys around are mantled in green, while grain is growing rapidly and causing the farmer to rejoice at the outlook for an abundant harvest.

RAILROAD EXTENSION.—County Surveyor Nurse commenced the surveying the route of the Vaca Valley Railroad extension to Madison on Monday last, and finished the survey on Thursday. The laying down of line for the reception of the rails will commence forthwith, the iron already beginning to arrive.

A SAD ACCIDENT.—On Monday last, Robert Fenton, child of Venable and Nannie Morris, aged three and a half years, accidentally fell into a vessel containing boiling water, and was so severely scalded that death resulted. His remains were interred in the Masonic Cemetery on Tuesday.

BACONS.—Carpenter has been doing a rushing business this season at his brown factory at Cottonwood, in supplying the country around. Carpenter can talk his bacons, which are of superior quality, into any storekeeper at the rate of a gross an hour.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—James Douglas, on Tuesday last, while handling a charged revolver, one of the charges exploded, and the ball carried away a portion of the thumb of the left hand. The wound though not necessarily dangerous is yet painful.

WOOD.—Mountain oak wood for sale at Chandler's Lumber Yard; only $6 per cord, cash; good measure.

BREVETTES, &c.

Town lots in Madison are in demand.
The Chinese New Year will commence on Monday next and last eight days.
B. R. Sackett, of Oakland, was in town on Tuesday.
Next Wednesday, is known as Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent.
Mr. E. Wolfkill, his many friends regret to learn, is still confined to his bed by sickness.
Operation on the new tank-house and residence, for Theo. Winters, were commenced this week.
Tickets for the Washington Bir day Ball at Sackett's Hall, are being disposed of readily.
The weather for the week past has been delightful—thermometer ranging from 52 to 70.
A. C. Kean, Treasurer of Yolo county, paid into the State Treasury on the 29th, the sum of $51,763 68.
Dr. Lawrence, of Monticello, has filed his certificate as practicing physician, in the County Clerk's office at Napa.
Putah Creek is running a very small volume of water compared to that passing down a week or two since.
The lumber business is looking lively in Winters, at least we judge so from the quantity being carted away daily from the lumber yard of L. B. Chandler.
Silas Nelson, our old colored citizen who has been laboring under a severe spell of illness, was out on Wednesday, thanks to the attention of Dr. Gregory and kind friends.
A man came to Winters about two weeks since, and essayed to open a tailor shop.
After a week or so he became emaciated from sickness and was taken to the County Hospital for treatment on Saturday last.
"A want of confidence is plunging this country into a vortex of financial ruin," was the feeling remark of a man who was refused credit for a glass of whiskey at one of our saloons yesterday.
Dr. W. C. Harding is having made a cabinet for each of his offices at Suisun, Yacaville and Winters, at the wagon shop of Mr. D. Scroggins. A new wagon is also being finished at the same place for Doctor Norwood.
Mr. G. G. Briggs, our neighbor, the largest producer of raisins in the State, who has extensive vineyards in Yolo and Solano counties is increasing his vineyards having already planted 400 acres of raisin grapes, and after five years, expects to turn out 100,000 boxes of raisins per annum.
A happy couple, the wife a Democrat, the husband a Republican have made a bet.
If Elton is inaugurated, he is to get up, build the fire and dress the children. If Hayes is the man who is to do that sort of thing. But their oldest daughter says, "If the Angel Gabriel was the man, he never did build the fire and she never will. You can bet on that."

DELINQUENT TAXES.—There is a delinquency in the payment of taxes for 1876-77, in Winters and vicinity of $563.05, and the several delinquents are notified by A.
C. Kean, Tax Collector of Yolo county, that unless paid with costs and percentage before the 23rd, instant, he will sell the property upon which such taxes are a lien in front of the Court House at Woodland.
In this connection, the Yolo Democrat, of Thursday, adds: "If the brevity or lengthiness of the annual delinquent list of taxpayers is any indication of the prosperity of a people, the residents of Yolo must be in a healthy financial condition, compared with that of some other counties. While others are completely two and one-half columns, the last Fresno Examiner contained fourteen columns, the Sonoma Democrat twenty-three and a half, the Colusa Empire, Sutter Banner over twenty-six, and so on. We congratulate our people on their good fortune."

STAKE TO MADISON.—William Brown, will shortly commence to run a stage daily for the accommodation of parties desiring to visit the town site of Madison, on business or otherwise.

Dr. W. C. Harding, Dentist, will be at Winters, 12th to 17th Feb.
Suisun, 19th to 24th Feb.
Yacaville, 26th Feb. to 3d March.
Suisun, 5th to 10th March.
Liquid Nitrous Oxide administered for the painless extraction of Teeth, perfectly safe.
Address all communications to office at Suisun.
